“ Elaine, Bernadette, Louise and family. I am truly sorry to hear about Martin, as I was to hear about Janine (only found out recently). My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I love you always! Patsy Romero-Martinez.

“ This may be late... but here goes... Martin is one of my best friends ever.. He is still with me. We spent so much time together. Working hard, as anyone knows Martin was and is a hard worker. We were a true team. No one more important than the other, yet no one greater than the team. I will always have all our saying in my head and in my speech. They called us S&M for a reason.... if there was a problem people would say" ask S&M" that meant we were a team and anyone could speak to me or him and it would be as of talking to a team. We have a great friendship. Miss you my brother.

“ Dear Anton family - Please accept my condolences. I am so deeply sorry for your loss.

My memories of Martin include, among his other myriad talents, his quick, delicious wit - a trait of the entire Anton clan - and one which he, in particular, honed to a fine joyful edge.

I find it so difficult to believe that this talented, handsome, still young man is gone.

Rest in peace, Martin. You made a difference while you were here.

“ Lo siento mucho a todo familia Anton. I never saw Martin not smiling or laughing. Every room he was in was brighter because of his presence. God was obviously having a great day when he made this one. Thank you for your life Martin. Peace!

“ Deepest sympathy to Martin's family. With a referral from sister Camille, Martin generously used he extra special recipe to spice the pecans I received from friends in southern NM. Sweetest, caring man who will be missed. Jeanne DiLoreto

“ I remember going to a party at his home. His counter and table were full of delicious food he prepared. He was a generous host. Although the house was full of people he made sure to welcome us and make sure we filled out plates. When we were leaving he made sure to see us out with a big hug and a bigger smile.

The shock at his passing and knowing that he is not physically here anymore leaves a hole in the hearts of people who knew him. Knowing that his spirit remains and memories will live in their hearts offers some comfort.

Soar high and free Martin!
