“ I never take enough pictures of my time family and I learned that when they are gone, memories are good but the pictures bring to life the smells and sounds and joy of those memories. I intentionally took a picture with Chetty recently. And so, I have the memory to recount her smile and laugh that I missed for so many years. My prayer is that Jesus hold her in his arms where peace and love abound with no pain and sickness. Eternal peace that surpasses all understanding and only God, our perfect Heavenly Father, can provide. Rest In Peace sweet lady.
