

Abran David Gabaldon

March 17, 1956 - May 4, 2017

1956-2017

Abrán David Gabaldón, age 61, a resident of Belen, NM, was welcomed home in peace and glory surrounded by his loved ones. Each person who ever met Abrán walked away family. He passionately and lovingly told stories, his favorite of all was his own testimony. Abrán was truly able to live out the gospel message. He treated everyone equally, with respect, compassion, care, honesty, kindness, and love. Abrán left a lasting impression and enjoyed thought provoking conversations. He is preceded in death by his parents, Henry and Sarah Gabaldon, whom he loved and cared for deeply. They are now reunited. Abrán is survived by his two daughter, Emilia and son in law, Nic Linley; grandchildren, Isis, Israel, and Moses; daughter, Julianna and son in law, Greg Garcia, grandchildren, Brandon, Joshua, Joaquin, Mateo, and Isabel. He is also survived by 13 siblings and their children whom he loved dearly and was happiest when they were all together; John (Linda), Herman (Vangie), Tomas, Anthony (Paula), Henry (Elaine), Henrietta (Wayne), Christina (Ernie), Charles (Yolanda), Debbie (Efren), Regina, Timothy (Kristen), Ronald, and Sarah (Tim); several nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews. Although we are left missing him here, we take comfort and rejoice in the fact that he is in his Father's arms hearing, "Well done my good and faithful servant." A Celebration of Life will be held by the family on Saturday, June 10, 2017, at 6:00 p.m. at 429 Jarales Rd, Belen. Please bring a written copy of your most treasured memory of Abrán. A final goodbye will

“ When we were children, our favorite play times were out in Abrans Dads old cars where all of the cousins would get together and play. We each would hurry home for lunch to gather any food items we could find. Mine were always ketchup sandwiches and oranges. During those days, we could solve all the problems in the world. Abran was my closest cousin and were good schoolmates while in school. He always had a funny story or a great smile to share. Our sincere condolences to his family.
