“ I never imagined this world without you, now that your not around, I thought of all the things I never said, but I wish that I could say them now...These thing collect and add up quickly over time...I love you brother and I hope there's lots of rest where you are...Until we meet again...."we are brothers, no distance or time could ever separate us for good....Nothing

“ My heart goes out to all of you!

I knew Adrian since he was around 10-yrs old. What a brat he was! Lol. I got to spend a lot of time with him as an adult - he lived w Sandy and I for years. I like to remember the really good times with Ajo - laughing (a lot!), just being crazy, always jamming to music! He and I could play the most awesome air drums and guitar and we would sing OUT LOUD! He was there for our wedding, the birth of both our baby girls, and so many other holidays and just special times. I loved him unconditionally, and he always knew this. We all wish things could have gone differently for him. Love you Ajo!
