“ I met Alice when she was pregnant with her daughter Jocelyn and I was pregnant with my twins LeeAnne and Christine. I even remember that she was wearing white. It was only a few years later that we became friends. I always looked up to her and felt she was a person worth emulating. I loved Alice and can say that she never failed me when I needed her. We had not seen each other in the last few years but my love and admiration for her never waivered. It was my hope that we could re-connect soon but God had different plans. I will miss you and always remember you with the greatest affection. Linda C Sanchez
