“ I grew up in the neighborhood with Mr. and Mrs. Cordova. Both he and his wife were so caring of others. Mr. Cordova kept all of the neighborhood kids in line! He protected us and I will never forget when he bought all of us popsicles and warned us to stay away from the ditch because it was high that summer! He was so caring. He loved his family, especially his grandchildren very much! Even after our family moved out of the neighborhood, I took my own children back to see where I grew up and there was Mr. Cordova, sitting in front of his house! I'm sure he wouldn't remember me if he saw me but he was always waving and smiling! He was truly a part of my childhood and a part of the neighborhood that will be missed greatly. May God bring peace to his family during this time.
