“ Dear Dicky and Julie,

*David and I send our deepest sympathy to you and your family.
Your mom will always hold a special place in my heart.*

I loved to hear her recite poetry. I loved to cook with her, even when she would raise the beater and shoot egg whites all over the kitchen while talking to me as we made Natillas. Or she would chase me around the kitchen to put more raisins in filling for Empanaditas.

I am forever grateful to have known her my whole life, she left me with memories I will always cherish and a friendship that will never end.

“ Dicky, Julie & Family,

I felt a nameless sadness roll over me as I read about your mother's passing. Bobbie, as I knew her, was a compassionate and lovely lady. Her mission on earth is now fulfilled. In keeping with God's design, the rites of our sand clocks never weaken. One grain at a time they remind all, life is a paradox: Life breathes or vanishes.

Bobbie, in keeping with her Catholic faith is in that eternal mystery where God unlocked his heart for her arrival. It is without doubt your brother Nicanor Arno Romero III has also joined her in Heaven May both rest in peace. May time bring solace to your grieving hearts.

I submit condolences on behalf of my wife Sue, our family and myself.
