“ To the family of my friend, Barney. Barney was a great man and I enjoyed working with him at the city of Belen. We also enjoyed cheering for our Belen Eagles and Dallas Cowboys. I would also sit next to him in church and he would always get a kick of me holding his thumb when we do pray the Our Father. He will be missed. I hope you cherish the fond memories of him because I sure will. God Bless all of you.

“ I remember when my dad, Barney, my friend and I went to Denver. We had a water gun fight in the car on way back home. Lol. He was always ready to help me fix my lemon of a Mustang I once owned. He was a very good man, friend, and cousin to us. We will miss him a whole lot. Sincerely, Crissie Leyba and family.
