“ There's so much to say about you, Auntie Berna. From the times you let us spend the day or night over at your house. Us playing outside, to painting ceramics and to helping us with our homework. You recorded videos and taken pictures of all of us at the most precious moments. Writing cards and letters to everyone, especially throughout the years I was in college. Giving good advices, to making us laugh and to cheering us up. You always had welcome anyone to your house with open arms, filled with lots of warm hugs and love.

It's sad to hear that you are gone, but God had called you...and you were ready to go home...home sweet home. You will be heavily missed and love.

Rest in peace, Auntie Berna ☐ 🌻 🧡

“ *Berna displayed Love as in Isaiah 58: verse 7 which reads: Share your Food with the Hungry and give shelter to the Homeless. Give Clothes to those who Need Them and do not hide from Relatives who need your Help! She showed her Love for THE LORD by exhibiting Compassion, Consideration & Generosity to others! She had a zeal for life, she took on a task & got it done & then moved forward to something else, Berna was Love & was loved by many! BASK in THE LORDS LOVE BERNA & enjoy the Rewards of Heaven Forever!
Love, Craig & Cathy!*

“ May you rest in peace cousin. I will always remember you big smile and unconditional love that you had for everyone. You always welcomed everyone with a big hug and you threw the best Lujan Family reunions. I will never forget you and pray for your family to have peace in their hearts during this time of loss. Peace be with you Berna! Love, Gelly
