Our lovely Bernie now sleeps as tears stand upon our eyes and wet the pillows by our cheeks. But, sleep I say, for in the dawn God cut your thread of life and freed your soul to dwell forever in the eternal garden. In keeping with your Catholic belief, you are now home to dwell in the arms of our loved ones. We will miss you, sister, from sun rise until it sets.

My heart is now pressed in the jaws of a vice at the loss of my sister. She would always ask me: "Cuando vienes?" I would reply: "En el ano que viene." Sadly, she will not be home when I return to New Mexico. My heart aches!

Please accept our sincere condolences on behalf of our family.
