1930-2016

Bonnie Gladwell, age 86, a resident of Peralta, N.M., passed away Tuesday, December 6, 2016. She was a member of Church of Christ. Her family was the greatest joy in her life, visiting and playing games always was a fun way to pass the afternoon away. Bonnie loved to sing and play her organ. She was an avid bowler, and still bowled on a league. Bonnie took pride in her big green back yard with beautiful vines hanging everywhere. Holidays were always her house, with lots of food lots of family and lots of noise. She loved Jesus with all her heart, soul, and mind. Bonnie showed the love of Jesus to others through her kindness and generosity. We will miss her so much. She is preceded in death by her loving husband, Charlie; son, Brent; sisters, Louise, Wanda, and Nettie; great-grandchildren, Katie, Tye, Chandler; and her parents, Eb and Marhta Proctor. Bonnie is survived by her sons, Andy and wife, Diane Miles, David and wife, Jane Miles; daughters, Gwen and husband, Donny Hyatt, and Judy and husband, Albert Huckaba. “ Absolutely loved this woman. So warm and loving, and funny. She made me laugh on the worst day of my life. Actually got me shussed at my own father's funeral when she was going down the line giving hugs and sharing, she hugged me and asked me if I was still single.

Me standing there in my best dark dress, eyes raw and the color of strawberries from crying, Kleenex at the ready whispered back, "Yes."

She kinda shook her head sadly, and said quietly, "Your father never could get rid of you."

It caught me so off guard, we both cracked up a little too loudly.

Someone turned and shushed us. We just hugged again and I never saw her after that.

But I will never forget how much my dad loved her, what an amazingly loving person, and what a wicked sense of humor. Loved her to pieces.

I should have said how much my mom and my dad loved her. She was a kind one of a kind.

“ Bonnie was the best thing that ever happened in my life when she married my dad. Luckily I told her that just days before she passed away. She knew so many things and I tried to learn them all. I called her every week for advice and just a sounding board. She had a sharp mind, quick sense of humor, and always had cheerful, loving words. Though she now fills a big gap up in Heaven, she has left a gaping hole in my heart! Me and my family will miss you terribly: My husband, Albert. Sons Josh & Luke. Stepson Vince. Daughters-in-Law Shannon & Windy. Granddaughters, Alexandria, Charlette, Lacie, Savanna & Kiona. Great Granddaughter Aurora.
