“ Michael & Abigail:

Our hearts are with you as you bear the mortal loss of Brenda. The music of the lyre cradled the clouds that wrapped Brenda's soul on its way to Heaven. In keeping with her faith, she is now in the arms of the Lord to rest in that eternal garden. There she will experience the fullness of life and power of the Lord. May she rest in peace.

I submit sincere condolences on behalf of Sue, our family and myself. May time bring solace to your hearts.

“ Brenda was such a sweet, faithful woman. As a substitute teacher, I worked with her occasionally at St. Mary's and loved talking with her. She loved her students. As a mother of a St. Mary's alum, I visited with her often when picking up my student. Her faith was strong, as was her love for her family. When my husband became seriously ill, she and her husband were so supportive of my family. My heart aches for her husband and daughter, and I pray they have long-term support from family, friends, and the community.

“ Dear Deacon Michael and Abby, I know you have a lot of faith in the Holy Trinity as well as the intercessions of our Blessed Mother Mary. Hold on tightly. I send you my sympathies along with prayers. Remember, sorrow and joy go and come together. Blessed are they who mourn for they shall be comforted. I already miss Brenda's beauty and smile. But I must tell you, you are blessed to have been the loves of her life. I was blessed too as an acquaintance. Our community lost a very special lady. May she rest in Christ's Peace and pray for us now that she has been raised to a higher place, Heaven.
