“Uraina, I will never forget the first time your father and I met Bryan—our train ride to Santa Fe was something special. The conversations, the laughter, and the way he made the simplest moments feel meaningful will always stay with me. It was clear the two of you were in love and had a special bond. His presence was a gift, especially the love and laughter he brought into your life. This will be my most cherished memory of Bryan. I hope remembering these joyful times brings a little comfort in this difficult moment.”

We were blessed to have Bryan in our lives. He was a true servant of God, and I am confident that Bryan is now resting in the arms of our Savior. May God Bless you and comfort you in the days ahead. Love you, Audrey.

“I just met Bryan this year playing on the same adult baseball team. Man, what a guy! He was always out there in the field bouncing around enthusiastic and ready to go. I'm 46 and couldn't believe Bryan's energy and enthusiasm. I hadn't officially met him yet so I went up and introduced myself. I had to know how old he was. So I asked him and he told me he was 46. I couldn't believe it! This guy is my age with that much energy! I was super impressed. I wasn't about to put as much effort in as he did at our age. He was much younger at heart than me obviously. Anyway, I've only met Bryan a handful of times because I'm not able to attend as much baseball cause of my job. In those few meetings he quickly became my favorite teammate. Bryan is definitely in a better place and deserves it but man we lost a good guy and I know this after only knowing him for a very short time. My heart goes out to his family. I can't imagine how difficult this is for them right now. My prayers are with you.”

“ We will miss having Bryan in our lives. It was so much fun doing outdoor activities with Bryan. He was very athletic and good at everything he did - we especially enjoyed going snow skiing, rock climbing, and boating with him! He was also a great artist, pianist, and drummer. He was such a great coach for teenage boys. We love him so much! Antoinette and Maurice (parents-in-law)

“ I love you forever my life. You've left a giant hole in this world. I will miss your beautiful smile that lit up every room you were in, your many talents, all of our laughter, and the amazing love that we shared while we were on this earth together. Until our time together in heaven I will miss you every single day my Bry Bry
