“ For Aunt Carmen's Family,
I love you all very much and I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. I know how hard it really is. One of my memories of my Aunt Carmen is when I was a child visiting her and Uncle Al's house. The house was crowded with children and she was worried about how I had slept. She was so sweet to me. I was too young to express myself but I really wanted to tell her how much I enjoyed and felt safe in her company. How cute and fun the experience was. It was such a nice family feeling and I really loved her a lot. I send my deepest sympathy to all of you.
Love,
Kathy Sanchez

“ We are sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but we hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death (John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth (John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Angie, I have known you and your family as long as I can remember. What has been most memorable is the happiness your mom had being with you and Fermin at your home in the last couple of years. She was always smiling and in our eyes incredibly happy and comfortable being in your home. If you mom could, I am sure she would have helped Fermin in the shop with his woodwork because she surely enjoy being in the shop. Jeanette and I enjoyed many laughs and stories with your mom while you were preparing great meals for us. What comes to mind is the song that Randy Travis sings with the message of " It's not what you take when you leave this world behind you, it's what you leave behind you when you leave". Your mom left many happy memories for you so be joyful for her life! We are thankful to you and Fermin for sharing those many weekends with you guys while your mom was present!

“ To the Sanchez family. My sincere condolences to each and everyone of you. I will always remember Carmen as a beautiful lady and my mom's close cousin. Her life's journey is now over and she now begins an eternal chapter with those who have gone before her. I am sure that Our Lord has welcomed her into his heavenly kingdom. Rest in Peace Carmen.

“ Angie & Family,

Angie I had the pleasure of meeting your Dad and Mom at a party they hosted in Jarales in June of 1996. I met you and Fermin a few years later but never made the family connection until now. Please accept our sincere condolences over the immense loss of your lovely mother.

Keep fresh the grass upon her grave with your love. Sing to her with your living best for she will always hear your voices right. She is now at rest in the Eternal Garden along side the love of her life.

Family, may time bring a measure of comfort as time passes on!
