“ Casey, when I was a child and was getting bullied, I walked into your Belen boxing club, and you taught me how to throw a stiff jab and a perfect right hook! I asked you; "how do I win in a fight?" You said, "walk away and you are the bigger man for doing so." Rest in Peace Champ!

“ Casey's barbershop was like the kind you see in the movies, like "Cheers" where they all knew your name. My dad Isaias Gutierrez (Ike) would go in there and just hang out while Casey and the other barbers worked on cutting hair. I believe my youngest (Amelia) got her first boyish hair cut by Casey. My son remember' going with his Grampa Ike to Casey to get hay. He was really a delightful man to be around. Like his picture here, he was always smiling. Him and my Dad had a really great friendship. Anyway, I was sad to hear of his passing, but now all of you have another Angel up there watching over all of you! Louisa

I just heard that Casey has passed and I want to offer my condolences to the family. I worked next door to his barber shop.. La Contessa Beauty Salon.. I was a hairdresser there and Casey and I became very good friends and would play poker at his shop when we had a break from hair. He was a great person and always had great jokes to tell and stories galore! He was liked by so many and will be greatly missed. Rest in Peace Casey and keep smiling down on us that have to contend with this crazy world down here. Gilbert Chavez

“ Lydia, Gil, Martin, Sam & Family,

Casey and I go back to those wonderful days in Jarales. Those were happy times with sweet notes under the lulling spell of God, whom he loved so well. That was long before his spirit-strength did join the solemn joys of eternity. In keeping with his Catholic faith he has found the true affinity of his soul and now rests in the hands of God. May Casey rest in peace as he was a truly good human being.

I submit sincere condolences on behalf of Sue, our family and myself. May time bring solace to your grieving hearts.

“ My condolences to the Cordova family. I got to know Casey pretty well during his 20+years as my barber. I enjoyed talking with him about boxing, and now he will be able to meet all the greats. He will also have his beautiful wife next to him again. Don't mourn Casey, he had a good life as he would wish for all of you, his family. May the Lord be with you at this, a trying time.
