“ One memory I have of Cecilia is her laugh. She had the most happiest laugh I ever heard. I used to have more fun with this lady when her brother in law Alex had the El Nido. Had so much fun back in the day. Juan was in the beginning stages of his landscaping business so they would help out at the bar. lots of great memories I have of you my friend. Even though we lost touch for so many years I always thought of you when going by your house & never stopped to see you. Juan whatever the circumstance with Cecilia this woman loved you to the moon & back. You & Cecilia together were always so happy together. I pray for you & the family, please find comfort in each other & if she was suffering know that God has taken her home where she suffers no more & is flying round making sure you are going to be okay. May God Bless you all Berna
