He is preceded in death by his late wife, Patricia Tanguy; mother, Maria Turner; and his younger brother. He was a great painter and loved Bob Ross, Lord of the Rings, fly fishing, hunting and everything outdoors. He also cherished his many knives, swords, and many other collectables. Chuck loved the holidays and his nickname “Santa” which was given to him by his grandchildren. Wolves were his spirit animal. We want to give a big thanks to his grandkids, Levi (Keria), Chelsea, Alaura, Summer, Katlyn and his friend James for taking care of him in his final days.
