“ Clorinda was always the life of the party! I remember when she showed up to Cecilia's wedding ready to be the flower girl. She was soo happy to be my sisters flower girl and had the biggest smile. Clorinda always said what was on her mind, whether you liked it or not, but at the end of the day, she would give you a big hug and would do anything for her family. I know she is now at peace and happy to be with her mom. Thank-You Clorinda for always asking about our Alex. Prior to Aunt Amy passing away, Alex had given all the Aunts a wrist rosary she purchased from Rome. Well, Aunt Amy passed away and we gave the wrist Rosary to Clorinda. She was so appreciative of the gift and proudly wore the rosary during her mom's memorial service. Prayers to Alma, Elmo and Alan. Sorry I could not make it to the service, but I will be there in spirit. RIP my cousin Clorinda and again "Thank-You" for being a good cousin to me. Until we meet again.

Love You,

Cousin Ted Gomez

“ Clorinda could always make me laugh. Her giggle was infectious. My favorite memory of Clorinda was how all the kids loved her. The little kids (and big kids too) liked gathering around her as she would tease them and make them laugh too. She was loved greatly and will be missed by everyone. My greatest sympathy to her entire family. She loved all of you. Love, Betty Gomez

“ Oh dear, I wish I could be there for Clorinda's funeral. She always put a smile on my face. When my Dad passed away Clo and Elma were up to no good. Our house was full of family and friends who came to support and comfort my Mom Sisters and brother. It was the night before the funeral. We were all talking in the den, when those two mischievous cousins came into the room. Clorinda was covering her eyes weeping and Elma was patting her back consoling her. "Whats wrong" I asked. Elma replied " she feels like your Dads death was her fault" "what?? Why would you say that?" I was shocked and went up to her to comfort her. It's my fault she said again. She began to explain that she had been to Barstow the week before to visit my Dad who had been sick. " well I spent the night. In the morning I woke up to take a shower. Right after I got out of the shower your Dad walked in...I forgot to lock the door! " her voice got louder." Your dad saw me naked and it scared him so bad he died" She continued " i tried to cover myself but the closest thing was a wash rag.! My mouth dropped. Clorinda and Elma started laughing. And then I started laughing. The whole room started laughing. She was something else! It was those sort of things that I will miss immensely. I talked to her about a week before she died. We had a great talk and we laughed alot! I wish I knew that was going to be the last time I was going to talk with her..I probably would not have talked so much about constipation! Haha I love you Clorinda and Im will send lots of thoughts and prayers to your brothers and sister!

“ Clo-I will miss your beautiful smile and miss hearing your laugh. I admire the love you had for your family and especially your mom. I know Aunt Amy was not only your loving mom, but your best friend. I can only imagine how happy she was to greet you in heaven. I will always remember the good times we had, especially surviving the earthquake in Barstow! Rest in peace my sweet cousin. Sending love and prayers to Elma, Jerry, Elmo, Tonia, and Alan.
