“ Clyde, I will always hold you deep in my Heart.

I also worked alongside Captain Herrera. A young, and New Lieutenant, I Toby Trujillo was very Blessed to have Clyde as one of my mentors, he taught me patience and understanding, caring and stability, especially when it came down to working with the inmates and especially the Correctional Officers, who were always the Backbone of the department.

My wife Nancy, and I, send our deepest sympathy and Condolences to his immediate Family and Friends. I know the our Lord Jesus Christ holds a special Place for Captain Clyde.

“ It is said that one's cousins are our first friends in life and that certainly was true in my life. My Primo Clyde and his siblings were neighbors to my Tia Rosana's kids. I loved going over there and we would all play together. We climbed trees, dug tunnels in the arroyo and went swimming in the irrigation ditch... What wonderful memories I have! As adults we don't see one another too often but the friendship and fondness has never faded. When I saw Clyde, I could always expect a big smile and a genuine hug. Eva, Angela, Marco, Tia Molly and all my Herrera cousins, my heart cries right alongside yours. I will miss Clyde but was so blessed to be related to him. Eva, thank you that you took such good care of him during his long illness. You truly kept your wedding vows and Our Lord will bless you abundantly for that. Un fuerte abrazo para todos! Lucille

“ *Worked with Capt. Clyde at the Prison. Very professional and conscientious man. Took care of his Officer's, Staff and Inmates to ensure the safety of all. I am very honored to have worked under his supervision. He taught respect and sometimes most of all what we needed the most "Common Sense"...
Rest in Peace my friend...*
