“ Craig-you were the only one who knew how to Do my hair. It always spoke to you and you listened. You were and always will be the love of Trish's life. You always stayed true to who you are. Your smile was contagious and always put people in a good mood. Your outlook on life was always positive. You made an impact on every person you met-always positive. You are my friend and my brother in arms. You were a candle in the wind. I miss you terribly. I will mourn the loss of my friend but not for long because you would not want that. What I will do is take to heart and learn from you to seize each moment in life and make the most of it. You always had a positive outlook. My life is better for having you in it. I am blessed I had the opportunity to tell you that I love you and how much you mean to me. Your spirit spoke to me. I love you and will miss you and will take care of your love Trish Marie Lucero. She will never be alone cu I will always be a call away. I know that your spirit is still here with us because I can feel you. You have given me comfort, courage and strength through this time.
