

Daniel Jason Flock

May 13, 1971 - January 6, 2021

1971-2021

Daniel Jason Flock, age 49, a resident of La Cienega, NM, passed away on January 6, 2021. He was born in Los Angeles, CA, but found a lifelong home in New Mexico. Loving people just as much as the land, Dan made friends everywhere he went. With so much love to give, Dan did everything in his life wholeheartedly, regardless of any complications. A loving father, friend, brother and son, Daniel Flock will be missed by everyone he touched in life. He is survived and loved by his sons, Nicholas and Geoffrey Flock; his brother, John and the Flock Family; his parents, Patty and Gigi and the entire Valdez Family.

The family would like to thank friends and family for their love and support and that of course includes Geoff, Joe, Mikey, Calvin, Camille and so many others. There will be a celebration of Daniel's life at a later date. Please sign Daniel's online tribute at www.romerofuneralhomenm.com Romero Funeral Home, 609 N. Main St., Belen, NM

“ I only met Dan a handful of times, his oldest son is one of my best friends. Last year, we (Nick +I) embarked on a journey to the PNW. The plan was to leave early morning, i packed up my stuff + heading over to their home in La Cienga. When I arrived Nick wasn't quite ready yet (big surprise) so i hung out in the living room until he was ready to load up. Daniel was scattering around trying to find things to give his son that would be nice/helpful to have. He showed me baby pictures of Nick + gave me his card, told me if Nick ever needed anything to give him a call. Dan loved his son, it was very apparent to me. My heart is with the family and I hope Daniel has found peace.

“ Early August 2019, he said he felt nice so he asked me to take a picture.

“ How often do you meet someone in life that can make you smile, even in the darkest of times? How often can you have someone who always has your back, no matter what, no questions asked? Since we were 14, I was fortunate enough to have such a rare person in my life in Dan. Often times the roads of life can be hard, uneven and steep. Dan may not always have had all the answers, but he always did his best to ensure things never got too serious, too arduous, so we could endure the storm and live to fight another day. Knowing we lost someone exceedingly singular in nature, my thoughts go out to his dear family and many friends. Soon, the cold void and pain we all feel now will fade and be filled with his enduring warm spirit and never ending laughter. Today let us embrace the past with fond remembrance and cast aside the sorrow of this surreal loss. God's speed my brother. -CG

“ Dan was the first friend I ever had. We met when I was 5 years old, we hit it off right away. He shaped my life in many wonderful ways and because of him and his family's commitment to attending their local church, I gave my life to Christ. He was the first one that planted the seed of faith that eventually bloomed into a lifetime commitment to Christ: I will be eternally grateful to him! We had the best childhood and wouldn't trade it for anything, so many amazing memories. Dan I love you brother and you'll be missed forever.

“ It is with sadness and a heavy heart that I write this memoriam for our nephew Daniel who came into our lives with a vision of light. Always happy, kind and genuinely a good person and man. We hope and pray that this is how he will be remembered from here to eternity. I wish that I would have gotten to know him a little better over the years but always appreciated the times that he came down to Colorado for the holidays or an event that was taking place at the time and I believe and know that he appreciated it as well. There is a time to mourn and eventually a time to celebrate as we know Daniel would want us to celebrate his life and the times we had to share with him well he was here on earth with us. We pray that he soul and spirit Rest in Peace and all the souls of the faithful departed Rest in Peace, and may the Perpetual Light shine upon him. Amen With All Our Love! Uncle Tim and Aunt Terri

“ I remember meeting Dan for the first time! He had the best smile! Always so kind & sweet to me 💕 I remember him putting doors in for grandma & grandpa! He was a perfectionist! So good at what he did!! God Bless you Dan. We will always love & miss you 💕 Our prayers are with Nick, Geoffrey & Dan’s entire family & friends. Sending strength & love 💕 Love, Aunt Cheryl & Shane Vigil
