I remember once when my sister and I visited my Uncle, he said "Mira aqui veines los moscas! I thought to myself, "I've been called many things, but never a fly!" I was anxious to hear his follow up for that statement. He saw I was puzzled and said "Los Moscateers." He was calling my sister and I the Musketeers. We laughed so hard!! I will miss him, but know he is in Heaven getting things ready for his garden in the spring. Yes, Tio, you are one of the best farmers in the Valley ;0)
