Never Forgotten Poem

I think of things you used to say and all that you would do, at some point, every single day, my thoughts will turn to you.

To lose you was a bitter wrench,
the pain cut to my core.
I cried until my tears ran out
And then I cried some more.

This wouldn't be your wish for me
That I'd be forever sad
So I try to remind myself
Of the happy times we had.

I know I can't be with you now
And you can't be with me
But safe inside my heart you'll stay,
That's where you'll always be.

“While we laid to rest your body today, with sad hearts but the fondest of memories. You have but stepped through the veil and are now with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To continue our life’s journey here and to continue your eternal destiny there till we are once more re-united with you and will once again be together as an eternal family, it’s not goodbye but “we will see you later my little brother”

I Love You!

“What Is This Thing Called Death”

By Gordon B Hinckley

What is this thing called death?

This quiet passing in the night?

It’s not the end but genesis

Of better worlds and greater light,

O God, touch Thou my aching heart

And calm my troubled, haunting fears

Let Hope and faith, transcendent, pure

Give strength and peace beyond my tears.

There is no death, but only change

With recompense for victory won

The gift of Him who loved all men

The Son of God, the Holy One.
