“ I remember her as a beautiful young girl who skated on an ice pond in El Rito on my grandpas place. She was my mother's sister. Dana remembers her when she rented an apartment from his folks in El Rito, and he kept her supplied with wood to keep her apt. warm and to cook with. Back in those days that is all we had. We loved her very much, as we grew older she became a friend not just an aunt. Dorothy you will be missed.
