“ To The Toca Family,

We were remembering the last time we saw "Dougie" and that was at Tyler Bolivers welcome back party. We talked about his adventures with Steven Sanchez and the fact that he didn't have a girlfriend. Sheesh, he was on a cruise with a whole bunch of them! He said no he hadn't found one for himself. We told him obviously it wasn't time and that one day he would find the right person and he would know when he met her. He just laughed and gave us his beautiful smile.

Please know that he will always be remembered in our home and in our hearts. We are sorry for the sorrow you are going through but know that you are a Forever Family and that fact is what will keep all of you strong so you can be with him again.

May the Lord comfort all of you as only he can.

“ Doug you were family to us, you were always there if we needed something you would drop what you were doing just to come help us. You were Quincy's best friend and his gym partner. Trinity used to call you dougie so then we started calling you dougie. We think about you everyday. You will be forever missed we love you!

“ I remember when the kids were all little--they still called Doug "Douggie", they called Alyssa "Tato" and Gavin "Gordy". I remember the family all dressed in white, holding hands over the altar in the Albuquerque Temple as they were sealed together as a family for Time and All Eternity. Li'l Doug may be gone from this earth, but his spirit still lives on--and the family is a Forever Family. You will all be together again! Sweet is the peace the Gospel brings...God be with you 'til we meet again, Doug.
