“ I remember when Dylan and my son met at a Christmas church play at IC Tome. Both played sheep of the Nativity. They grew into fast friends, spending time and overnight stays at each other's homes. Dylan always had a sweet smile that was infectious. Even after entering High School, whenever he saw me or my wife he would always come up to us and say hi. My family will miss Dylan who will always remain in my family's hearts and minds. Our heartfelt condolences go to Dylan's family and hope their faith will console them during this difficult time. Rest in peace dear Dylan.
