“ Dear little cousin,
It's been a long time, and my how the years have passed since I last saw you running around my aunties yard playing in the mud having the time of your life. You will truly be missed by so many. My prayers are not only going to you but to all your friends and family who miss you dearly. I hope they all find some kind of comfort in each other over the next couple of days to help with the heartache of your passing. Love you little cousin....

“ Dear Dylan’s Family,
It saddened me to hear about Dylan’s passing. He was such a great student! He was a joy to have in my class. I saw him when he graduated high school and he was so happy to have accomplished a great endeavor. He will be missed. I have you in my thoughts and prayers.
Sincerely,
Lorena Torrez
