“ I met Eden while she was attending NMHU in Las Vegas, NM in 2008. I became her friend when we hung out a few times. After talking with her and getting to know the wonderful person she was I was instantly attracted to her and knew this woman was special as she was so caring and loving to people and loved animals. I lost contact with Eden in about 2010 and was recently thinking about her. I googled her name to see if I could find her to contact her, when I discovered this obituary. Unfortunately, she passed away. My condolences to her family and may she rest in eternal peace. - J.B.
