“ On behalf of my son Carlos Cordova, Andres Benavidez and our family it is with the greatest sorrow and sympathy that we give our condolence to the Muñoz family. I don't have to tell you what an amazing soul your boy was nor that he had a heart of gold only matched by his smile or generosity. Nor do I have to tell you what a true man his was to overcome some of the obstacles he was faced with at a young age because you already no know all this. What I would like to share with you is just how much we loved him and considered him one of our very own. His friendship and bond with my son Carlos will never be replaced. When it came down to it and the going got tough and everybody else ran it was Edgar and Carlos left in the room ready to take on the world and that they did. He was the only one of my boys friends who would walk straight into the kitchen carrying something for the table, grab a dish towel and offer to help. The thing was he was only about 14 maybe 15 the first time that happen. That was when I knew that boy was a good man and ever since then he was family. Nothing will bring back that precious soul but I vow to keep his memory alive by doing something Edgar style everyday. Whether it be to dance my soul out at the next event not giving a care who's watching or maybe surprise my friends by dropping by with a full blown BBQ in toot for no reason at all, or maybe I'll just remember to send a kind message to the ones I love daily telling them I love them just because. He may have been young but he was wise beyond his years and has left me with so much to learn and strive for In my own life. I vow to make bucket list just like him and one by one check the items off and have something g to show for the life that has beenloaned to me and make it count just like he did. I thank you Muñoz family for sharing your Precious Son with the rest of us. I know he made our family complete. We will miss you mijo. Until we meet again keep on smiling as you made the world a better place. Con mucho amor y respeto. Carlos Cordova, Andres Benavidez, Mama Gail, Addy and Vince
