“ Lina and Family,

My heart breaks for you and is filled with sadness for the loss of Edward. We all have our flaws as Edward did as well, but the positive always out weighed the negative when it came to Edward. The level of love, loyalty and respect he had for his family and friends was great. A person isn't born with that but is taught that from birth and I would like to thank you for teaching him those great attributes because that is what shaped him into the man he was in his heart. Because of my friendship with Edward I can honestly say my life was blessed in many ways. Edward will forever hold a special place in my heart and I will always hold his friendship in my heart.

May God bless you through this difficult time and heal your sorrows so you hurt no longer. Thank you for sharing your Edward with me.

“ Oh, the Chavez family! I am so deeply sorry for your loss. Edward was a good man. I can honestly say that him and Sandra let me become part of their family and looked out for me as if I were their own child. I remember them calling and asking me if I was going to come over for dinner and when I would get there we would sit and talk like a family. Edward taught me a lot of things about a lot of things. He showed me that even in a bad situation anybody could find a reason to smile. All the way until he had no fight left in him, Edward always was smiling. He found comfort in having his friends and family around him. I am so lucky I got to spend his last days with him. I am grateful for every good time (and even the bad ones too) where I got to share a little bit of his life. He made me feel like I belonged somewhere and told me always how much he cared for me...and what makes that so special is that he didn't have to. I am not related to him. I just met him along my journey.. and I was lost. He helped me find my way and never left my side. He was and is such a blessing to my life and I will hold his memory close to my heart and he will forever be missed!

Sandra I love you.

Lina, you and your family will be in my prayers.
