“ I'm so sorry for your loss, Ed was a dear friend of mine. We had good times together. Laughing and joking all the time. He was a fun loving man, he always spoke of his girl's and never denied them of anything. I'm shocked to read of his passing. God rest your soul Ed, you'll always be in my heart.

With our deepest condolences to Eddies Family and Prayers as he makes his way home with our Lord Jesus Christ . This man was so adored by many and with his sister Corrine who watched over him with his daughter Selina, Grandaughter , and many family and friends that he had in his life, He made many people laugh and was here in this life to make people happy, as he did just that !!! God is waiting For you Eddie with open arms!! Gods Blessings . God has Gained another Angel .

“ My sincere condolences to Eddie’s two daughters, grandchildren and wife. I especially want to give my condolences to his sister Corrine. Ever since I can remember Corrine and Eddie had a special bond. She was always there to defend him whether he needed defending or not! Her love for her brother was obvious throughout his life....

May God grant his family peace and comfort in the days ahead. 🙏

Sincerely,

Clara
