“ My heart is sad for the Chavez family. I know that Edwin is in our Saviors arms. Where there is no pain or tears.
My fond memory of my cousin was when my sister and I spent summer time with him and his wife Judy in Albuquerque. He made sure we didn't get out if line while under his care.
Now he is with grandma, his mom and dad., his brother and uncle Beto and our cousin Steve looking down us, waiting for the time we will all be together once more forever. Love ya'll deeply. Belinda “ Edwin and I go back to our childhood days as not only cousins but best friends. He worked for me a couple of years and was the best worker anyone could ask for. We lost touch with one another the last few years but I thought of him often. My hat off to all the family for giving him a loving, respectful going away tribute. He was one of a kind.
