“ Edwin was one of three of the Martinez collective boys who included Mark (Simon and Mary), and myself Carl (David and Barbara). We all got together during the summer and raised Cain. He had a penchant for baseball and played like a pro. He got pretty serious about it but had to leave for his dad's career. On his return I lost track of him and reconnected when he lived in old town. It was the last time I saw him. My primo Mark left this life at the age of 55 in Farmington with his family and I am now the sole survivor of the terrible three. I will join them in my time. I pray for those he left behind and will keep his legacy in my heart for all time. God bless you my cousin, now you can rest soundly in eternal peace.
