“ Dear Ealanor’s Family and loved ones, we ask our Lord to grant you His Strength and comfort during this time and for as long as you need it. Ealanor was a beautiful lady inside and out. She was sweet and quiet with a beautiful smile. This is how I remember her. She always spoke to me when we saw each other anywhere in town. I will miss her a lot. Gene, I am very sorry for your loss. To her children, I am sorry for your loss, this isn’t very comforting... it doesn’t get easier, at best, within time you just get used to it and know she is always present with you waiting for you to call on her in a different way. Gene, I am Larry and Beatrice Torres’ daughter Crissie. I remember my parents visiting with you and Ealanor since I was very young. Ealanor never forgot me and no matter what she was going through, she would give me her gracious smile. Remember how blessed each of you is to have had her in your life. I will.

“ I'm very blessed to have the pleasure to have known Auntie Elanor, everytime we would meet up, we would always laugh till we had tears in our eyes. One time I will never forget when Jean Marie got married Eleanor and i road the golf cart headed to the dance, we both where tipsy. I almost wrecked us, We both where in tears of laughter and almost peed our dresses.. She was very out going always fun to be with.. Thank you Auntie for all the goodtimes
