“ I am so very sorry to hear of Elizabeth's passing. Her older sister, Marlene was my best friend and I used to be at the Hawkes home often. Was surprised to see in another comment that Liz was called not only Blitz, but Bird. I knew her as Blitz. She and her brothers, Danny & Mike would call me Birdseed. My sincere condolences to the Hawkes family and love to her mother, Frankie. I wish I could be there at this time. ”

“ Though I have many memories of my Aunt, one of my favorites is when I was really young. My grandfather told us that if we went and cut some Hollyhocks he would make us some Hollyhock Stew. We proceeded outside and cut ALOT of them down. My grandfather was livid as he had only been joking. My Aunt hugged me and told me, "Its ok, I dont like Hollyhock Stew anyways." Later in life I watched Marc and Zach for her when they were in elementary school. Marc and Zach, I am so sorry for your loss. I know you both loved and still Love your mom dearly. I'm here for you if you need anything at all!!!

This is how I will always remember her, beautiful, free spirited and kind. My Dad, Dykes Hawkes was her brother and I remember going to meet her in town and I just thought she was so beautiful!

“ I am so very sorry to hear about my friend, my condolences to Liz’s family and especially her sons. I’m heartbroken for Marcus & Zach, her pride and joy.

I’m just so sad that she was taken still so young but Gods timing not ours💔 Hadn’t been in touch for awhile but she was my best friend throughout Jr. High & High School and we connected off and on throughout the years. We shared so many fun times and memories. Such a talented artist, I was always in awe of her artwork and always knew she’d be a nurse like her Mom.

I’ll always remember our sleep overs, trips to Henry’s or Eva’s Market and getting chips and dip and other goodies and watching SNL. Walking to each other’s house, then biking to each other’s house, then when we got our cars, riding to each other’s houses and cruising the Belen streets. So many more happy memories are flooding in while I write this and it’s making me happy and sad.

You’ll be missed my friend but I’ll always remember the fun times we shared and your very cute smile. You’re resting in Jesus arms now my friend🙏 Love You💕

So sorry for your loss Clara, she was my bestie in jr & high school. I have a memory with you. I'm pretty sure you're the right sister, Liz would babysit your kids at times, I remember helping her a few times. She was always so very patient with the kids, a little Mom already. It was sweet to watch her with your kids
