“ Our deepest condolences to the Rael family. 54 years ago moved to Valencia County. Dina had her house in Bosque Farms. We rented it and we had moved in a refrigerator, in the meantime we found the house we're living in. Let Dina know we found a house to buy. Dina was kind and gracious and was understanding. She let us out of the rental. Thank Dina, you for be you. You will never be forgotten❤️🙏

“ Our deepest condolences to the extended Rael Family. Ramon, Everett, Janna and Patrick may your fond memories of your Mom's nurturing love for each one of you bring you comfort in this difficult time. Knowing that the cycle of life that each one of us has to endure will eventually bring us together with our loved ones that have gone ahead. Having God's promise to us and our faith in the Lord that one day it shall come to pass.
God Bless...

“ Dear Rael Family:

I am so sorry to hear of your loss! Mrs. Rael was always a supportive parent when I had her kids in school. She was always there for them, making sure they were doing their best and letting them know she was there for them!

I remember Mrs. Rael as a great person, always cheerful and always wanting to do what was right! I hope the wonderful memories you all share will help sustain you through this difficult time. Many Blessings to each of you!!!

“ Nene (mom) she was the best for the time that I knew her she was always happy to see me and I her. We would talk about her day. I learned a lot about her. We talked about where she was from how she got to where she was. It was amazing. She loved her kids so much and how proud she was of them. She was an amazing part of my life that I will treasure forever. Love you and rest in peace with all that have gone before.
