“ Dearest Enrique, or Henry as you liked to be called, I love you and miss you, and you will always be my big brother. Henry was a strong man with a big heart. He always had a witty joke ready, he made us laugh and made sure everyone had a good time when we got together. I always remember how he looked out for his "little sisters", was a good friend to his brothers, and was admired by so many friends. He gave us some wonderful nieces and nephew. There is so much I wish I could say about his life, but it was a big and courageous life and hard to put into words. You live on in all our hearts, beloved brother. Always. Delia

R,

Our most heartfelt condolences to our cousins on the passing of primo Henry. I would remember him often and say to myself I wish I could see him someday. I had told my wife Evie, he had done some work at my parents house where we now live, he also did work on my Grandma's house when he was starting his construction & carpentry work more than fifty years ago. I regret not seeing Henry before his passing & will always have fond memories of him. Rest in peace cuz, God Bless the Gomez & Chavez Family. Rudy & Evie Serafin
