“ I don't have very many memories that do not involve you. I was born to my mother... But I believe in my heart and soul, that I was always meant to be yours . God found a way to make it happen. I will miss calling you just to say I love you and that I miss your cooking. I will miss looking toward your house and seeing your bedroom light on and knowing that your so enthralled in a book that you just can't put down. I will miss taking you dinner as much as I could, hoping I made you proud with how it tastes because you taught me everything I know. I will even miss dialing your phone number that has been the same since before I was born. I will miss your stories and your laugh. I will miss your wisdom and advice. I will miss the friend I had in you, the mother I had in you and everything in between. Most of all, I will miss your conditional love you had for everybody. I'll see you later my Dinda. Fly High into the blue sky you loved so much❤️

“ I will miss taking her (soft) fries and coffee almost daily from Lota Burger. Watching her favorite TV channel (discovery) and taking her western books to read. And most of all the family memories she shared with everyone.

Love You. Your Nephew Kenny.
