“ We moved here in August 2014, and found out we had great neighbors, Ernest and Denise. They made us feel very welcome and safe. They helped us watch our home while we went back and forth several times until we got moved in and other numerous times. We will miss our good neighbor and friend, and are very thankful and feel very blessed to have had the time to know him. He was a good man. My husband especially will miss his friend. It made his day when he caught him in the backyard to say hi, laugh and tell stories for a while over the fence. We will miss seeing him walk to his mother's house to check on her, hearing him laugh and play with his grandkids, walking them to the school bus stop, and seeing him proudly carrying his baby granddaughter around. Our prayers and our deepest condolences to his family.

My deepest condolences go out to Denise and family. Ernest was a good man. He was a food husband, dad and grandpa. I know he will be missed by many. I will miss seeing him out for his daily walks. Rest in peace
