“ I am so saddened by the death of my dear beautiful friend "Ernie" My mother Nancy and Ernie were long time friends. After my mom went to Heaven, I would visit Ernie and her sweet cat as often as I could. She LOVED that cat! I always waited until "Wheel of Fortune" was over to call her. Ernie was always so positive and on the go. She was a very Godly woman and is in the arms of OUR SAVIOR. God Bless her and Ricky. You both will only know JOY, HAPPINESS, LOVE and PEACE! BINGO!! My condolences to the family GERALYN Sanchez

“ My grandma used to say that I was the best birthday gift she ever got. We share a birthday and used to play a game of which one would call the other first for our birthday. I won most times. She wanted me to sleep late on our birthday, but I wanted to wake her up and let her know that another year came. I never remember grandma raising her voice, yelling, or spanking my brother and I. I was the oldest grandchild and had her to myself for almost three years. One time, she did get mad at me for fighting. Some bullies were trying to hit my brother, and being the oldest, that could not happen. My grandma caught me fighting and told me that little ladies were not supposed to fight. I still laugh when I think of that time. Grandma loved my mud pies, I made her mud pies from the dirt in her backyard. She made the best bread, and Sunbeam missed out on her recipe. Soar with the Angels, Grandma, and someday, we will be wishing each other a happy birthday.

“ Grama, it hasn't been that long and I already miss you so much. Words cannot describe the void I am feeling in a world without you in it. In this life, you were the ultimate warrior. Through the loss of Grandpa Fred and Uncle Louie and your parents and every single one of your siblings, you continued to be strong and show us all how to walk through the hurt and still be present and display love. I had the honor of being your granddaughter and Goddaughter and I will forever cherish that honor. Even living as long as you lived, it was not enough time, not even close. As I write this, I am comforted to know you are in heaven, as God allowed me the honor to hear you come to Him in worship in prayer before you left this earth. To the end you continued to guide me in your wisdom as even in through your pain, you knew to come to God. When you asked God to allow you to be home with your family again and make you well, I realized God answered your prayer in that you are now free in the presence of God in the home Jesus prepared for you and with the family that is already in heaven. I love you Grama and I will follow your example of coming to God always in worship and prayer, even when life hurts. P.S. Please give Grandpa Fred, Pappo Paul, Uncle Louie and Auntie Sophie a big bear hug for me.

“ Grams...I never wanted this day to come. I will miss your phone calls and hearing your sweet voice. I will miss seeing your face light up anytime you saw any of your family. I loved how proudly you'd wear the jewelry we'd buy you and how stylish you always were. The days when I don't feel like getting ready, I think of you, and how you always made sure to have your hair and makeup done...striving to be like you, Gram! You loved your casino time and as of recently, you'd always look forward to your Sunday train ride to the casino with the “Golden Girls” crew. There are so many memories....holidays at your house, sleepovers with cousins, taking us to McDonald's but only if we behaved :)

I miss you so much it hurts. I know you are in Heaven now though full of joy and life —reunited with Grandpa Fred. Thank you for staying with us for almost 95 years. Selfishly, I wanted more time, but I will see you again when it's time. I love you Grama! -Candice

“ In Loving Memory – May 6th

My grandma was one of the kindest souls to walk this earth. She loved deeply and with her whole heart—her family, her friends, and even the strangers she'd meet with a warm smile and a friendly hello. She had this beautiful way of making everyone feel like they belonged.

She loved her morning coffee—hot and always in her favorite mug. That first sip was her little daily ritual. And oh, how she loved going to the casino—not because she needed to win big, but because it was fun.

She was happiest when we were all together. Laughing, sharing stories, just being close. She made holidays brighter, ordinary days warmer, and tough times a little easier just by being herself.

Grandma taught us love, joy, resilience, and the value of showing up for the people you care about. Her kindness, her joy, her love—they live on in all of us.

We miss you already. But we know you're somewhere smiling, maybe holding a hot cup of coffee... and eyeing the jackpot.

“ Ray, Pauline, Ricky, Frankie, Ruth, Jerry, & Family,

Our sincere condolences on your loss, our thoughts & prayers are with your family during this difficult time. Cherish all the memories you have with her.

I will always remember seeing her at Isleta in the Bingo with Sophie, or in the Casino, also outside waiting to get the Rail Runner back home with her Belen buddies.

Rest in peace Ernie, & God Bless all your family.
