“ We are sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but we hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death (John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth (John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Espidirion Vallejos. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in God's promise to soon "swallow up death forever" and "wipe away the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) While grief at the loss of Espidirion is great, joy at welcoming him back in the resurrection on earth will be greater. (Mark 5;42) With deepest sympathy,

“ Dear Viola & Family

We were very sadden to learn about the passing of our very good friend, Speedy. He was there for us at all times. He was my classmate in High School and one of my best friends. His Daughter Dianne was my favorite student at NMHU. We were pleased when Speedy and Viola would travel to Las Vegas to watch her run with the cross country team. It gave us the opportunity to visit with them. We are very sorry we missed the viewings, services and burial. We, unfortunately could not find the details of his passing until this very afternoon. We regret very much that we could not be there. We will miss him very much but are certain that he is now in a better place, Heaven!

“ Dear Viola and Family,
I am so sorry about your recent loss of your dear husband, Speedy, and your dear father, grandfather, and great grandfather. What a beautiful family!

I will always remember that Speedy and Viola attended my youngest son, Aaron's wedding, and that meant the world to me. I also remember that we would always get helium from Speedy for our family birthday, graduations, and other special events. Speedy was also a colleague of FW Romero, my sons' daddy. I know they are having great conversations in Heaven! We have fond memories of Mr. Speedy Vallejos.

With much love and prayers,
