“ Family,

It seems as if only yesterday Fidel was telling me that Estella Romero, his aunt, was marrying Eulogio Sanchez! Now, I find myself trying to let my heart heal over the loss of my lovely friend from Jarales. There was no one more precious than the Macario and Serapia Romero family. It was from such stem that Estella blossomed into a wonderful person, wife, mother, grandmother and friend. But, now her life has turned, her heart was tired, her soul was yearning and now peace laps her round. She now has inherited the vast hall of Heaven. She is at peace!

My sincere condolences to Reina Trujillo Romero and others who loved Estella so much!

“ My beautiful grandma I love you and will miss you . I have the best memories of spending summers with you growing up . The fun we had at the chili stand and I always looked forward to your homemade cooking especially your bread ! I laughed every time you came in the car with us because you would hold on as if we were on a roller coaster . To this day I LOVE tomatoes because of my memory of your garden and picking the fresh tomatoes . You always sent us to Adams market with money to buy all the candy we wanted . Your house was the hub for the family to meet up and that house was full of love . I enjoyed talking to you on sundays on the phone when i would visit my mom . I'll miss your yearly birthday cards you sent every year for 40 some years . Next months birthday just won't be same . You are in paradise now with my grandpa and my uncles and I'm glad you resting peacefully . Thank YOU for the best gift ever, the gift of my mom . Love you forever

“ Al, just wanted you to know I was thinking of you and your family. Your mom was so incredibly strong, even though I only knew her through your eyes since I was not lucky enough to meet her in person. I truly did feel like I knew her. God be with you. -- Jan Valentine
