“ Just learned today about Gene. He was married to my Aunt Gracie. When Gene and Gracie traveled to California, prior to my mother's death, my mother could always count on Gene's handyman skills. He could repair just about anything and didn't hesitate to do whatever was needed even if that meant climbing up on the roof. At their home in Belen I fondly remember Gene sitting in his chair across from Gracie sitting in her chair with the dogs on their laps or sitting on the back of the couch looking out the window. Gene was a good man. It's amazing that he lived to 100. May he rest in peace and God Bless his family, especially Chuck. My sincere condolences, Sue Garley, sgarley@unm.edu
