“ On April 24, 2019, I was walking around Our Lady of Belen Catholic Cemetery after visiting my mother’s resting place. I saw a truck drive up and a very well-dressed man stepped out then reached in the truck for a single vase filled with assorted flowers. He saw me and stopped still grasping the vase with both hands. He waited until I came nearer. I saw kindness in his sparkling eyes and my heart went out to him. He spoke softly in Spanish and greeted me. I stopped and asked him who he was there to see. He told me it was his wife. I asked if I could see her site. We walked the short distance. He smiled and pointed to her grave. He told me she worked for Dr. Brubaker at one time for many years. I believe he said 20 years. We were both smiling down at the thought. I left him then and continued my walk. From afar, I glanced back and saw that he was kneeling before her. It was undoubtedly a very private moment. I looked away quickly. That sight filled me with such emotion.
