

Eusebio Valenzuela Cardoza

October 5, 2011

~Eusebio Valenzuela Cardoza, age 85, passed away on Friday, September 30, 2011. He was born in Hurley, New Mexico, and was raised in Las Cruces. He was an ardent and faithful member of Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish in Peralta, New Mexico. Eusebio enlisted in the US Navy and served in the Pacific Ocean Theater during World War II. He married Aurora Padilla and together they raised four children in Albuquerque. Eusebio was proud to retire from the IRS after thirty years and relocated to Bosque Farms in 1988. Eusebio was a simple man but nonetheless full of love and happiness that his family will always carry with them. He will be sorely missed but never forgotten. He follows his wife, Aurora, and eldest son, Joseph, in death. Eusebio leaves behind one brother, Julian Cardoza, his daughters Annette Tynan and Olivia Cardoza, and his youngest son Greg Cardoza; ten grandchildren, Jessica and James, Maria, Scott and Ryan, Alicia, Jill and Eric, Elyce and Adass; and six great-grandchildren. ~A Communion Service will be held at Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, October 8.
