

Eva L. Cordova

November 24, 1933 - June 28, 2014

1933-2014

Eva L. Cordova, age 80, a lifetime resident of Los Lunas, NM passed away on Saturday, June 28, 2014 surrounded by her loving family. Early on in her life, she worked at several places in Los Lunas, including the Huning Mercantile and the Los Lunas Movie Theater. While working at the theater she met the love of her life, Marcelino, known to her as “Bache”. Her greatest joy was being a rancher’s wife, a mother, a grandmother, and a great-grandmother. Her life’s happiness was spending time with her husband and family and watching it grow to several generations. She was best known for her wonderful baking and cooking skills, and never let anyone go hungry in her house. She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Marcelino J. Cordova; parents, Ramon and Theresa Luna; sisters, Mela Garcia, Virginia Carrasco and Reina Luna; and brother, Fred Luna; granddaughter, Maria Antoinette Otero; and in-laws, Andres and Ignacita Cordova. Eva is survived by her children and their spouses, Andy Cordova and wife, Diane, Debra Cordova, Loretta Otero and husband, Rick, Annette Otero and husband, Anthony, and Kathy Cordova; grandchildren, Stephanie Cook and husband, Scot, Andy Pete Cordova and Brenda, Tamara Cordova and Johnny, Kevin Otero and Danielle, Tarah Santana and husband, J.R., Janelle Gonzales and husband, Marcos, Ashley Sanchez, Anthony (Hito) Otero, Yani Cordova, Maria Reina Cordova and Kelly Lopez; great-grandchildren, Aysia, Alyssa, Kaylee, Ashley, Justin, Bryce, Alexia, Marissa, Dominic, Kaylee, Jenavyve, Bella, Ilianna, Riley and Baby Gonzales; and brothers, Pat Luna and wife, Betty and Richard Luna and wife, MaryLou. She is also remembered by special nephews, Rick and Paul Luna; a special niece, Avalon Cordova; and many other loving family members. All services will be held at San Clemente Catholic Church, on Saturday, July 5, beginning with a Visitation at 8:30 a.m. with a Rosary to be recited at 9:30 a.m. A Funeral Mass will be celebrated at 10:00 a.m. Interment will follow at San Clemente Catholic Cemetery. “ There was never a time when I didn't know how much Aunt Eva loved each one of us, and growing up with that feeling helped all of us become who we are today, thank you Aunt Eva! Thank you for your love and your care, thank you for all the beautiful memories etched in my mind and in my heart, because of you! Know that you will be missed, so much, know that we will keep you with us everyday, and share that love which you so willingly shared with us.

Andy and Diane, Deb, Annette, Loretta and Kat, thank you for sharing your Mom with so many of us, thank you for always including me in family gatherings which were always a celebration of love and family. Your Mom loved each one of you so much, she showed that every single day with her actions and her prayers for you. We can be comforted in the fact that she is now resting, and with Uncle Marcelino, may they find eternal peace together!!!

My Love to each of you, Paul.

“ I am sending the most heart felt sympathy to all of the family. God will see you through this very sad time. Mrs. Cordova is rejoicing with Mr Cordova in the presents of our Lord! The memories I have of my childhood spending so much time at their home bring a smile to my face. We will meet again!

“ To my cousins whom I love with all my heart,

I will cherish so many memories of my aunt Eva. Baking skillet cookies with her, my all time favorite recipe she shared with me. The many weekends I spent in Claunch. Playing rummy. Dreading when it came time to have our hair combed because she pulled it so tightly, our eyes were stretched back. The path that lead from grandma and grandpas house to hers. Most of all, her silliness and her infectious laugh. There are so many my list could go on and on. She was always so wonderful to me, and I will hold dear every moment I spent with her.

Thank you tor sharing her with me!

*All my love,
AVALON*
