“ I hope the memory of "Pico" stays with the people who he touched throughout his short life. Never a day goes without a thought of him. He is dearly missed and his memory is so vivid and true. He would be so proud of his son and his girls not to mention his nieces and nephews.

“ Pico was a great young man whose stature was only overshadowed by his warmth and character. He was a coach's dream and when it really counted he always came through. When Frank was a senior we were wrestling at the Payson, AZ Invitational. At the seating meeting, all the AZ coaches put a wrestler as the top seed even before I could speak. He was undefeated and they said he was a "man" among "boys". I held my tongue. In the HWT finals, Pico faced the "man" among "boys" and pinned him.
