“ We are sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but we hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death (John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth (John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time. -Matthew 5:4.

“ I remember Phil as a very respectful man. I always thought of him as a man of few words, but when he spoke everyone listened. To the Peralta family I sorry for your loss. I am sure he is up in heaven looking down & saying not to grieve for him for he is no longer suffering. You as a family will find comfort in each other just knowing he no longer suffers. Keep him in your heart & remember all he has taught you about life. May God Bless each one of you. Phil may you Rest in Peace. Berna

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. The death of a loved one is one of the most devastating experiences a human can face. At times, the loss can seem unbearable. The Bible promises; "God is near to the brokenhearted." It also says: "Throw your burden on God and he will sustain you." (Psalms 34:18 and 55:22) I hope this message will help you cope with the loss of your loved one.
