“ Felicitas was the oldest of nine children. She grew up poor with her Mom Perfecta Martinez at home and Father Juan Gabaldon was employed by the Forest Service. He was on horseback and watched for fires from his wooden outlook post. My Mom, Felice was an excellent Domestic Engineer and fabulous cook and baker for her family of four. She loved to garden and tend to her flowers and rose bushes. I arrived from school delicious smells of dinner cooking. She would be outside hanging clothes on our clothesline that Dad made for her. They were the best parents in my eyes and I am sure God's love and gift to us!

We just learned today the Feliz passed away. We are shocked and heartbroken. Feliz was like a sister to my mother, Nettie Gabaldon-Lerma. My mothers most cherished memories are of when they were children together. May she rest in peace. Our prayers go out to the whole family

“ I would always see her in church, always such a pleasant lady, always with a smile. Heaven surely gained a wonderful Angel. May she rest in eternal peace with her father in heaven. May the dear Lord give the family peace during this difficult time. Amen.

“ My favorite memory was when I was a young girl. I would spend a month each summer with my Grandma Rose and Auntie Felix was always around. We would go to yard sales and she would come visit. She had the greatest sense of humor. I just remember laughing with her until my cheeks hurt. I imagine she had a very sarcastic comment when she reunited in heaven with everyone.
