“ We were saddened to hear of Filo's passing so soon after losing the love of her life, Jose. She was a beautiful person, inside and out. She loved her husband, her children, grand-children, great grandchildren, the Lord and life. She was a beacon of sorts in her community and will be greatly missed by many. We would like to extend our heartfelt condolences and prayers to the entire family at this time. May God bless all of you and grant her eternal peace.

“ Otero Family,

You have lost a lovely mother, grandmother and great grandmother and I a long time high school friend. Her life's voyage is done and in keeping with her religious belief is now with her heavenly friend. She steered her earthly voyage with aplomb and now has entered the crowning of her eternal life.

May you continue to hold her in the golden cup that dwells in your hearts while her sweet angels let her rest and dream. She will always be with there to guide your hearts!

I submit heart-felt condolences on behalf of Sue, our family and myself. May time bring solace to your hearts!

“ So sorry to hear of Filo's passing. She was one of the sweetest, kindest people I have ever known. I remember going to her and Joe's home, with Ana, after walking up Tome Hill for a delicious traditional Good Friday meal. Also going to her home to watch the Christmas play her grandkids would put on. My condolences to her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. May God Bless you all.
